Institution: Nagarathinam Angalammal arts and science college

Event: Students Career guidance program for Final-Year Students

Date: 02/07/2026

Venue: Mini auditorium

Organised by: Placement and Training Cell, NAAS College

Recruiting Company: SHARP

Introduction

The Placement and Training Cell of Nagarathinam Angalammal arts and science college successfully organised a Campus Recruitment Drive on 02/03/2026 for final-year undergraduate students. The primary objective of the recruitment drive was to provide students with employment opportunities by connecting them with reputable organisations while enabling employers to identify talented graduates with the required technical knowledge, communication skills and professional competencies. The recruitment drive served as an important platform for students to demonstrate their academic achievements, problem-solving abilities and interpersonal skills in a competitive recruitment environment.

Objectives

The major objectives of the campus recruitment drive were to:

- * Provide employment opportunities to final-year students.
- * Strengthen the relationship between the institution and recruiting organisations.
- * Enable students to gain exposure to professional recruitment processes.
- * Assess students' technical, analytical, communication and interpersonal skills.
- * Facilitate a smooth transition from academic life to professional careers.

Event Details

The recruitment drive commenced at 10 AM with the registration and verification of student documents. Representatives from the recruiting company welcomed the participants and provided a detailed presentation on the organisation's history, mission, work culture, career opportunities, compensation structure and employee development programmes.

The presentation was followed by an interactive question-and-answer session during which students clarified their queries regarding job roles, career progression, training and organisational expectations.

Support by the Placement Cell

The Placement and Training Cell ensured the smooth execution of the recruitment drive by:

- * Coordinating with company officials before and during the event.
- * Arranging interview halls, computer laboratories and presentation facilities.
- * Assisting students with registration and document verification.
- * Managing the interview schedule efficiently.
- * Providing hospitality and logistical support to recruiters.

Faculty members and student volunteers also contributed significantly to the successful organisation of the event.

Outcomes

The campus recruitment drive was conducted successfully with enthusiastic student participation. Recruiters appreciated the students' academic preparedness, communication skills and professional conduct. Several candidates successfully secured employment opportunities while others gained valuable experience of the corporate recruitment process.

The event strengthened the institution's placement record and enhanced students' confidence in future recruitment opportunities.

Feedback

Feedback from Recruiters

Recruiters expressed satisfaction with:

- * Students' technical competencies.
- * Communication and presentation skills.
- * Discipline and punctuality.
- * Support provided by the Placement and Training Cell.
- * Overall organisation of the recruitment process.

Feedback from Students

Students appreciated:

- * The opportunity to interact with industry professionals.
- * The transparency of the recruitment process.
- * The guidance provided by the Placement Cell.
- * The exposure to real-world interview procedures.
- * The valuable learning experience regardless of the selection outcome.

Conclusion

The Campus Recruitment Drive was a significant initiative in enhancing the employability of final-year students and strengthening industry–institution collaboration. The event was conducted in a well-organised and professional manner ensuring a positive experience for both recruiters and students. The Placement and Training Cell remains committed to organising similar recruitment drives in the future to maximise employment opportunities and support students in achieving successful careers.

Acknowledgement

The institution expresses its sincere gratitude to the recruiting organisation(s), the Placement and Training Cell, faculty coordinators, student volunteers and all participating students for their valuable cooperation and contribution towards the successful conduct of the Campus Recruitment Drive.
